

Marda Loop Justice Film Festival

September 20, 2019

Erin Bird
Fair Trade Calgary

Dear Ms. Bird,

The Marda Loop Justice Film Festival supports the campaign to have Calgary recognized as a Fair Trade Town and supports raising awareness about the benefits and opportunities of fair trade for our community and for producers around the world.

The Marda Loop Justice Film Festival (MLJFF) is one of Canada's premiere events focusing on human rights, environmental and socially concerned documentary film and art. Now in its 14th year, the MLJFF is proud to present some of the world's best documentaries on the issues that are important to us as individuals, Canadians, global citizens, and humans. We've brought these influential documentaries from international filmmakers to more than 30,000 people in the Calgary area and across Canada, and thanks to our generous sponsors, we've done it free of charge.

In conjunction with the annual six-day festival in November, we operate the Peace Village, an information fair and marketplace. Additionally, we present justREEL, a year-round film series. This year we will screen over 20 carefully curated films and based on last year's attendance, we expect over 3000 patrons in 2019.

Sincerely,
